N.W.O. Parent To Parent

www.nwoparenttoparent.org

Parent to Parent of N.W.O. is an informational support group organized to help equip Teachers and parents of children with dyslexia and other related learning difficulties. This program provides a monthly platform throughout the school year for professional speakers to come and address various difficulties and introduce various solutions to the challenges a child with a learning disability can encounter in the classroom.

These programs are presented free of charge (unless otherwise specified); Parent To Parent meets the second Saturday of each month from September through May, with breaks due to holiday and weather in December and January. Check the Website for further information.

Jenny's Wish Foundation

www.Jennyswish.org

Jenny's Wish Foundation offers financial assistance through scholarships for students with learning disabilities in the United States. To help children and families strengthen skills and overcome weakness that propels vulnerable children to achieve success as individuals and to instill leadership through volunteerism.

Jenny's Wish Foundation is committed to helping young people, like Jenny, who struggle every day with the anxieties that come with having special needs. Jenny's dream is that no person should have to bear the weight of the shame, fear, anxiety, and loneliness associated with learning disabilities
